

Poetry Analysis

Use the following outline to draft a strong argument: Save introduction box for last!

Subject	Literary element to discuss:	Meaning of title
First chunk (imagery, sound, tone-examples	Second chunk: Imagery, sound, tone- examples	Third chunk: Imagery, sound tone-exmples
My Understanding of what I see	My Understanding of what I see	My understanding of what I see

Tone

POV

Poetry Analysis

Consider title, shifts of tone, connotations, imagery, punctuation, mood, oppositions, caesuras, sound devices, forms of parallelism, setting, etc.

Subject:	Possible literary elements to discuss:	Theme
Claim 1	Claim 2:	Claim 3
My Understanding of what I see	My Understanding of what I see	My understanding of what I see
Tone	speaker

Argumentative Essay Outline

Use the following outline to draft a strong argument: Save introduction box for last!

Topic:

Introduction:

Thesis:

Background- optional

Claim 1 + Evidence:

Claim 2 + Evidence:

Claim 3 + Evidence:

Opposing View 1 + Refutation:

Projection

Name:

Teacher:

Class:

Date:

Themes And Scenes

Use the following outline to draft a strong argument: Save theme box for last!

Question:

Literary element to discuss:

Theme

First Scene

Second Scene:

Third Scene

My Understanding of what I see

My Understanding of what I see

My understanding of what I see

Name:

Teacher:

Class:

Date:

Argumentative Essay Outline

Use the following outline to draft a strong argument: Save introduction box for last!

Topic:

Introduction:

Thesis:

Background- optional

Claim 1 + Evidence:

Claim 2 + Evidence:

Claim 3 + Evidence:

Opposing View 1 + Refutation:

Projection

Name:

Teacher:

Class:

Date:

Rhetorical Essay Outline style 1

Use the following outline to draft a strong argument: Save introduction box for last!

Topic and thesis

Context- historical, cultural, social background of speaker or audience

Exigence- problem or issue that motivated the speech

Strategy 1 and examples

Strategy 1 + Evidence:

Strategy 2 + Evidence:

My explanation as to why

My Explanation as to why

My explanation as to why

Rhetorical Essay Outline style 2

Use the following outline to draft a strong argument: Save introduction box for last!

Topic and thesis

Context- historical, cultural, social background of speaker or audience

Exigence- problem or issue that motivated the speech

Chunk 1 strategies and evidence

Chunk 2 strategies and Evidence:

Strategy 3 strategies + Evidence:

My explanation as to why

My Explanation as to why

My explanation as to why

Short Story Analysis Outline 1

Use the following outline to draft a strong argument: Save introduction box for last!

Topic and thesis	Context- setting- date, time, culture, values	Point of View- narrative distance and plot
Chunk 1 or strategy 1 and evidence	Chunk2 or strategy 2 and evidence	SChunk 3 or strategy 3 and evidence
My explanation as to the connection	M explanation as to the connection	My explanation as to the connection

Short Story Analysis Outline 2

Use the following outline to draft a strong argument: Save introduction box for last!

Topic and thesis

Context- setting- date, time,
culture, values

Point of View- narrative distance and plot

Literary Element 1 and evidence

Literary element 2 and evidence

Literary element 3 and evidence

My explanation as to the
connection

M explanation as to the
connection

My explanation as to the
connection
