

Antigone Episode #2- Listening Guide

“Tragedy, Honor, Wisdom and the End of All Things”

1. ...the idea that laws are not _____; they must be based on something larger than themselves.
2. She too sees some truths to be _____, and they are self-evident not just to her but for everybody else of her cultural and religious heritage.
3. When man’s law and God’s law conflict _____ seems to have made her decision.
4. She’s going to respond to Antigone’s _____ to commit treason with a little bit of hesitancy.
5. Don’t be mistaken, he doesn’t mean they dug a hole six feet and threw it in the ground, by buried they just _____ a little bit of _____ on it.
6. “Yet, I always say, there’s nothing so comfortable as your own safe _____.”
7. The problem is, she IS like her _____ and that is good and bad, I guess.
8. Creon accuses Antigone of being inflexible, and he’s going to say correctly that this is _____.
9. Here’s this guy who has this very very strong sense of _____ to his community; that’s a good thing.
10. If you’re the leader, there’s a reason to be angry, _____ and threatened; so that’s understandable.
11. Fate is worse when you’re _____, but what we really don’t know is who are they talking about. Who is the one acting _____ here?
12. Do you think it could be _____ of them?
13. The first thing he does is he wants to affirm his father of his affection, of his _____.
14. “How shall I earn the world’s _____?”

15. "I beg you, do not be unchangeable. Do not _____ you alone can be right."
16. A palm tree can _____ in tropical climates when other trees really can't because when hurricanes and tsunamis come they are able to _____; they're resilient.
17. You can be right, and you can be alone; _____ is a little more complicated than Creon understands.
18. He's going to _____ her with loneliness.
19. Modern day psychologists will tell you that _____ is probably the most cruel form of punishment for prisoners.
20. "I have been a _____ here in my own land all my life; the blasphemy of my birth has followed me."
21. There is no point where Antigone and Haimon are _____ in the play.
22. She is rash like her _____; she is proud like her _____, but she's also a very disconnected little girl.
23. This play is going to have a lot of preaching in it; he says, "Think, all men make _____."
24. Creon has actually an opportunity to undo the _____ of his life, and sometimes we don't get that chance but sometimes we do.
25. How strange and ironic, he buries the alive one and doesn't _____ the dead one.
26. They are very treacherous to _____ who have been bad to their _____.
27. He took so long to get to the tomb, when he gets there the noose is around _____ neck; she's dead.
28. He comes in to his house carrying his dead _____, and he's going to hear what his wife Eurydice did when she heard about all this.
29. Clearly, it's difficult to make _____ in order to live well.
30. Antigone and Creon BOTH display incredible lack of _____.