

Listening Guide- Episode 2- Wuthering Heights- Emily Brontë

“Tantrums, Crazy Relationships, Rejection, Revenge!”

1. Wuthering means _____, not withering which means humiliating.
2. Nelly is going to tell the story about this character who is ultimately going to be the main character, a man by the name of _____.
3. What Brontë is really constructing for us is this _____ narration technique.
4. There is basically _____ of everything the whole way through.
5. There is not an _____ narrator.
6. I think it's important to really establish that Heathcliff is Brontë's _____.
7. Heathcliff is what we call a Byronic _____.
8. Mr. Earnshaw is a _____ farmer.
9. Hindley asks for a _____; Catherine wants a _____.
10. Exclusion and _____ are motifs that are going to go all the way through this book from beginning to end.
11. Although _____ is the abusive one, there are a couple of examples where Heathcliff gives back to Hindley as much as he gives.
12. Mr. Earnshaw _____ with both children near him.
13. Cathy and Heathcliff are looking at their neighbors through a _____.
14. _____ provide views of the world that are very different.
15. Catherine ends up living with the Lintons; she is there for _____.
16. “Shame is the _____ of the soul.”
17. Heathcliff picks up a bowl of hot _____, of all weapons, and throws it at Edgar's face.
18. “For shame Heathcliff, it is for God to _____ wicked people, we should learn to forgive.”
19. Hindley, age 20, with his wife Francis, age 18, have a _____ named Hareton.

20. Catherine thinks she can have her _____ and eat it too.
21. This little incident in chapter 8 really brings out the _____ in Catherine.
22. There is a lot of _____ creating going on here.
23. _____ has the power in the relationship.
24. She [Catherine] is also making a choice to betray _____.
25. One way to see this is Catherine is maybe betraying her _____ for some sort of present comfort.
26. “All sinners would be miserable in _____.”
27. “As soon as you become Mrs. Linton, he loses _____, and love, and all!”
28. The total number of deaths in these two families is now up to _____.
29. “It was not the _____ bending to the _____, but the honeysuckles embracing the thorn.”
30. Joseph Campbell, the famous _____ says, “Myths and fairies are similar kinds of things, they concern the primary laws of our nature.”

how to love lit
podcast