

Listening Guide- Wuthering Heights- Episode 5

“Redemption, Forgiveness and Overcoming”

1. She suggests that even under terrible circumstances, there is a way to be free of the _____ of abuse.
2. The experiences are the same, and yet she's going to juxtapose two _____ postures in life and two very different outcomes.
3. A man on a mission, and it seems he has developed a mission of _____.
4. Eventually after throwing a knife at her head she leaves him, and she moves to _____ and raises a child six months younger than Cathy.
5. The main thing to notice are the parallels and _____ in the story.
6. Heathcliff takes his _____ pain and seeks to inflict it in a grotesquely manifested way on innocent children.
7. His hatred is destructive to everyone and that includes _____.
8. Heathcliff doesn't take her _____ of defiance seriously.
9. “Nobody loves you. _____ will cry for you when you die. I wouldn't be you.”
10. It is Bronte's contention that this solace or numbness from revenge is _____ even if you get it.
11. Bronte is going to flesh out this difference between passion alone and _____ and what it does for each person.
12. She's been abused by two Heathcliff's, the father and the son, _____ the abuse he received at the hand of Hindley.
13. “He's _____, and I'm free.”
14. Zillah is the _____ narrator.
15. Let's not forget, she's [Cathy] been robbed of her _____.
16. Heathcliff's stuck _____, at least, in the past.
17. Psychologically what is happening, as the revenge becomes complete, Heathcliff begins to cease _____.

18. Hareton's love is going to rescue Catherine, but reciprocally Catherine's love is going to raise Hareton from, what the book calls, idiocy to _____.
19. Heathcliff happens to mention to Lockwood that when he looks into Hareton's _____, he can never see Hindley, he can only see Catherine.
20. Poor penniless Cathy is now the owner of _____ estates, Thrushcross Grange (the mouthful) and Wuthering Heights.
21. "You hate me as much as _____ does, and more."
22. One relationship that is _____ compared to another that is about submission of one party to the other.
23. Hareton _____ turn against Heathcliff.
24. "He lost the faculty of enjoying their _____."
25. "I cannot look down to this floor, but her features are shaped on the _____!"
26. _____ is the guy that introduced the idea of a ghost at Wuthering Heights.
27. We have come full circle from Catherine and Hindley Earnshaw, _____, to Catherine and Hareton Earnshaw, _____.
28. Catherine masters the experience that _____ her mother.
29. "I know that justice holds in store, _____ for those days of gore".
30. The only sin that will _____, is the sin of not forgiving.