

Listening Guide

“Frederick Douglass meets Elizabeth Cady Stanton”

1. A vote is a _____, and the collection of these voices rule the day.
2. He supported women’s suffrage before the _____ and before African-Americans were even free.
3. Stanton came from an extremely affluent family; she had received the best _____ that could be afforded to a woman at that time.
4. Her father was sent into utter despair to the point where he actually told her, “Elizabeth, I wish you were a _____.”
5. The United States wins its independence in _____, and by the time we get to 1839, what I like to point out, is this country is _____ generation old.
6. When their paths cross, it is an amazing moment when two separate distinct _____ in United States history intersect and meet.
7. He considered her and she was his intellectual _____, and she was.
8. She and Henry, for their honeymoon, went to an anti-slavery convention in _____.
9. She went out there away from the social life that she had, and she felt _____.
10. There were _____ women there, all married and all with children.
11. Lucretia Mott when Stanton proposed it said, ‘Why, Lizzy, thee will make us _____!’”
12. In 1840, the census said there were _____ million residents in the United States, and of that 17 million, _____ million were slaves.
13. Every time we change the voting demographic, it changes _____ dramatically.
14. Most of the women at this time will die before they would ever see the _____.
15. What I love about reform movements in US history is that _____ is in charge; a growing swell of public attitude change occurs and waves of people begin to join.
16. “Right is of no sex; a _____ is justly entitled to all that we claim for _____.”
17. Thomas Jefferson, the _____ of the “Declaration of Independence’, was an Enlightenment thinker.
18. The _____ is the classic expression of contract law.
19. “When in the human events it becomes necessary for one portion of the family of man to assume among the people of the Earth a position _____ from that which they have hitherto occupied...”

20. "We hold these truths to be self-evident that all men and _____ are created equal...such has been the patient sufferance of the _____ under this government..."
21. 1920 was not the first time women were allowed to vote in national elections. If you go farther out West to _____ states in the last half of the century, women were allowed to vote.
22. One hundred men and women signed it, and it was highly _____, more than they could ever have anticipated.
23. Because of this horrid publicity, many of the signers were _____, and they begged to get their names off of that document.
24. It was through this publicity that Stanton became _____ with Susan B. Anthony.
25. Stanton would write all these speeches, and _____ would go around and give them.
26. "Susan B. Anthony stirred the _____; Elizabeth stirred Anthony, and Anthony went and stirred the _____."
27. After the Civil War there was an opportunity to pass the _____ Amendment which would enfranchise all men regardless of race.
28. "When women, because they are women, are _____ down through the cities of New York and New Orleans, when they are dragged from their houses and hung from lamp posts, when their children are torn from their arms and are dashed upon the pavement...then they will have the _____ to obtain the ballot equal to our own."
29. It was 72 years from the Seneca Falls Convention until 1920. On November 2, Charlotte Woodward Pierce, at the age of _____ the only signer alive from the original Seneca Falls Convention went to the polls in Philadelphia and cast her ballot in a presidential _____.
30. "I believe no man, however gifted with thought and speech, can voice the wrongs and present the demands of _____ with the skill and effect, with the power and authority, of _____ herself...give her fair play and _____."