

Listening Guide- Episode 1- Wuthering Heights

“Emily Bronte- Redemption, Forgiveness and Overcoming”

1. Emily was so interested and reflective of that chaotic _____ feeling of humanity.
2. But starting here at Maria’s _____, none of the four children really even had an opportunity to know their mother.
3. If I were to speak about what it’s really about, from my perspective, I really think primarily it’s a book about _____.
4. The Brontës lived in a part of England called _____, in a little village called Haworth.
5. Like all the other towns during the Industrial Revolution, this one blew up because of all the _____ that were built.
6. When technology explodes, it explodes way faster than the _____ ability to control it.
7. Technology creates the means to provide lots of _____ and produce lots of _____.
8. In the case of the Industrial Revolution, the most obvious abuse of power of the elite was in the exploitation of _____.
9. Patrick Brontë was a _____.
10. Moorland has peat and _____ and a unique biodiversity.
11. Patrick Brontë all of a sudden found himself conducting over _____ funerals a year.
12. At one point, _____ of the population was dead before reaching the age of 6.
13. People would die because of the _____ running in the streets.
14. She presents for us a strange and interesting, religiously _____ perspective of life and death.
15. In Wuthering Heights, we see a perspective of faith and divinity that’s _____.

16. Emily expresses the external world of _____ and the internal world of humans as dramatic.
17. She also sees these forces of nature in _____.
18. Emily's older sisters died of _____ at the age of 12 and 10.
19. They would experience, what today we call, a _____ education.
20. The Brontës learned to _____ stories from each other.
21. Emily and Anne, that's the youngest, they created a _____ that they called Gondal.
22. Emily, liked her sisters, concealed her _____ when she published a book.
23. "The women in the book are of a strange, fiendish- angelic nature, _____ and terrible."
24. This book is full of people with _____ disorders.
25. It's an unproven rumor that Charlotte, after she died, took the sequel to Wuthering Heights and _____ it.
26. Wuthering Heights: The Heights of _____.
27. _____, and perhaps us if we're like him, doesn't know anything.
28. The first _____ talks about forgiveness, unforgiveness, what things are forgivable.
29. A waif, I had to look up that word, that's an English term for a _____ outlaw.
30. This book seems to be about _____.