

Listening Guide- Episode 4- Elie Wiesel- Night

“The End of All Things and the Beginning”

1. No one can claim any _____ superiority, and we are all capable of great evil put under the right stressors.
2. If you wanted to count to _____, it would take you 23 days to do that.
3. We see that the Nazi’s actually did operate based on _____.
4. Somehow in Nazi Germany, _____ was lost.
5. In January of 1945, the _____ army began approaching Auschwitz Birkenau complex.
6. The SS evacuated a total of _____ prisoners.
7. The work in _____ was basically pretty pointless no matter what they were doing.
8. Now he was going to try to walk what was going to be, although he didn’t know it at that moment, _____ kilometers.
9. Elie and his father are going to join the _____ inmates that are evacuated from Auschwitz.
10. There is the emphasis on man’s ability to _____ evil and then there’s man’s ability to _____ to it.
11. “For the liberating army, let them know that here lived men and not _____.”
12. The media of Germany was not calling the German retreat Death Marches, like we’re calling them, they were calling them “_____”.
13. These prisoners saw all the Germans as potential _____.
14. The German people had great faith in what they called “Wunderwaffe” or the _____ Weapon.
15. Hitler had many physicists working competitively all over the Reich trying to enrich _____.
16. He highlights the SS stuffing the prisoners in cars without covers, over _____ in each one.
17. What does the _____ woman have in common with this wretched cattle car story?

18. Wiesel argues that evil expresses itself first and foremost in _____.
19. The _____ was full of expressions of absolute evil that challenged what we thought we were and what we thought we were becoming.
20. “It is impossible to expel evil from the world in its entirety, but it is possible constrict it _____ each person.”
21. Buchenwald is located in Eastern Germany. It’s about _____ south of Berlin.
22. Technically Buchenwald was never a killing center. Its primary function was _____.
23. At least _____ [inmates] were documented as dying there.
24. The German genocide is by far the most _____ genocide in human history.
25. He was not sad at the death of his own father, he was in fact _____.
26. The Nazis were the absolute expression of evil because they were the absolute expression of complete _____.
27. “The world learns _____.”
28. “_____ is the memory of the future.”
29. “No one may speak for the dead, no one may interpret their mutilated _____ and visions.”
30. “We must always take sides. Neutrality helps the _____, never the victim.”
31. “Our lives no longer belong to us _____, they belong to _____ those who need us desperately.”