Listening Guide

A Long Way Gone by Ishmael Beah

Episode 3- "Reintegration And New Life!"

1.	It's clear, and he points this out, that child soldiers are	than adult soldiers, and they don't know better.
2.	His particular case is an incredible	_, and one that is atypical of most child soldiers.
3.	Memoirs by definition are a famously	record of history.
4.	Personal are really the only true	e history that we have.
5.	He didn't anything down about w	hat happened to him until after he left Sierra Leone.
6.	His book by his own admission is not a	of statistical human data.
7.	These children were alienated already from their commun	ities of origin before they were exposed to theof war.
8.	You can't just send the rescued children back to where the	ey came from; there is no
	to send them to, and there is no	family.
9.	These returning girls are seen as and a second seco
10.	Government-sponsored agencies and religious organization READ. THINK. IA
11.	As a child in the book, Beah calls these humanitarian world	xers he physically hurts them when he can.
12.	They help get child soldiers back in school. They trace	members.
	They get them appropriate medical treatment.
13.	There has been a relatively high success rate in finding fan	nily members for former to return to.
14.	The credit goes to those front-line workers those are the	·
15.	"As soon as they started speaking, we would	bowls, spoons, food, and benches at them. We would chase them out of the	ne dining hall and beat them up."

help them fulfill their potential. 22. He illustrates his journey to	16. It's actually good for them to feel bad; it shows that they've not lost their
and take responsibility for that. 18in this we watch him find healing, and even a 19. We see him begin the process of 20. Beah manages to impress the of the United Nations. 21. The mission of UNICEF is to save and defend the rights of and help them fulfill their potential. 22. He illustrates his journey to, and we see his humanity coming back to him. 23. "I joined the army really because of the loss of my family and 24. A peace treaty was finally signed that did end the violence and brought UN peacekeeping forces to help maintain the 25. The war shattered over 3,000 towns and and totally destroyed the countries infrastructure. 26. "I went behind the house and punched the tree." 27. "I was always losing everything that meant to me.' 28. At this point, he is safely out of the war zone of Sierra Leone, but he is 2" 30. "There was no answer. If you spared the monkey someone."	of right and wrong completely.
18in this we watch him find healing, and even a 19. We see him begin the process of 20. Beah manages to impress the of the United Nations. 21. The mission of UNICEF is to save and defend the rights of and help them fulfill their potential. 22. He illustrates his journey to, and we see his humanity coming back to him. 23. "I joined the army really because of the loss of my family and 24. A peace treaty was finally signed that did end the violence and brought UN peacekeeping forces to help maintain the 25. The war shattered over 3,000 towns and and totally destroyed the countries infrastructure. 26. "I went behind the house and punched the tree." 27. "I was always losing everything that meant to me." 28. At this point, he is safely out of the war zone of Sietra Leone, but he is ?" 30. "There was no answer. If you spared the monkey someone."	17. For a combatant to recover, they must view their actions as morally
19. We see him begin the process of	and take responsibility for that.
20. Beah manages to impress the	18in this we watch him find healing, and even a
21. The mission of UNICEF is to save and defend the rights of	19. We see him begin the process of help them fulfill their potential. 22. He illustrates his journey to	20. Beah manages to impress the of the United Nations.
22. He illustrates his journey to	21. The mission of UNICEF is to save and defend the rights of and back to him. 23. "I joined the army really because of the loss of my family and 24. A peace treaty was finally signed that did end the violence and brought UN peacekeeping forces to help maintain the 25. The war shattered over 3,000 towns and and totally destroyed the countries infrastructure. 26. "I went behind the house and punched the tree." 27. "I was always losing everything that meant to me.' 28. At this point, he is safely out of the war zone of Sierra Leone, but he is ?" 30. "There was no answer. If you spared the monkey someone."	help them fulfill their potential.
23. "I joined the army really because of the loss of my family and" 24. A peace treaty was finally signed that did end the violence and brought UN peacekeeping forces to help maintain the 25. The war shattered over 3,000 towns and and totally destroyed the countries infrastructure. 26. "I went behind the house and punched the tree." 27. "I was always losing everything that meant to me.' 28. At this point, he is safely out of the war zone of Sierra Leone, but he is 29. "What would you do if you were the ?" 30. "There was no answer. If you spared the monkey someone."	22. He illustrates his journey to and we see his humanity coming
24. A peace treaty was finally signed that did end the violence and brought UN peacekeeping forces to help maintain the	back to him.
forces to help maintain the 25. The war shattered over 3,000 towns and and totally destroyed the countries infrastructure. 26. "I went behind the house and punched the tree." 27. "I was always losing everything that meant to me.' 28. At this point, he is safely out of the war zone of Sierra Leone, but he is 29. "What would you do if you were the ?" 30. "There was no answer. If you spared the monkey someone."	23. "I joined the army really because of the loss of my family and"
25. The war shattered over 3,000 towns and and totally destroyed the countries infrastructure. 26. "I went behind the house and punched the tree." 27. "I was always losing everything that meant to me.' 28. At this point, he is safely out of the war zone of Sierra Leone, but he is 29. "What would you do if you were the ?" 30. "There was no answer. If you spared the monkey someone."	24. A peace treaty was finally signed that did end the violence and brought UN peacekeeping destroyed the countries infrastructure. 26. "I went behind the house and punched the	forces to help maintain the
26. "I went behind the house and punched the	25. The war shattered over 3,000 towns and and totally
27. "I was always losing everything that meant	destroyed the countries infrastructure.
28. At this point, he is safely out of the war zone of Sierra Leone, but he is	26. "I went behind the house and punched the tree."
29. "What would you do if you were the?" 30. "There was no answer. If you spared the monkey someone	27. "I was always losing everything that meant to me."
30. "There was no answer. If you spared the monkey someone	28. At this point, he is safely out of the war zone of Sierra Leone, but he is
30. "There was no answer. If you spared the monkey someone	29. "What would you do if you were the?"
was going to die and if you didn't someone would also die."	30. "There was no answer. If you spared the monkey someone was going to die and if you didn't someone would also die."